Parent- Teacher Meeting

Parent-Teacher meetings are held on the result day of every examination to discuss about the improvements and drawbacks made by the children. An interaction with the principal is made possible for the parents on Thursdays. Feed back and suggestions are accepted for further improvement.

Counseling is also provided to the children to help them remain tension free and stress free.

SEWA - Social Empowerment through Work and Activities

It is a new endeavour, introduced in schools by CBSE. It is also marked depending upon the performance in various activities. Accordingly two teacher mentors from the school attended an orientation programme held at St.Mary's' English Medium School, Manarcad. SEWA aims at empowering the students physically, mentally and emotionally fit and to develop such personal and social qualities that will help them to be good human beings.

A variety of programmes were held in the school under the able leadership of the children from classes 9 – 12.

Firstly, they visited Asian Chips factory and evaluated the functioning. They also joined with the workers in the process of making and packing of food products and there after conducted a Food Fest "The Crunchy Cart" in the school premises. Exhibition, Quiz programme Annual Sports were the other activities conducted by the children for SEWA.

In all the above said activities, students themselves took the responsibility of planning, co-ordinating and executing various stages of the events held and proving themselves to be global citizens.

Congratulation to you all !!

LFVN is committed to developing an innovative approach whereby the management, students, staff and parents take ownership to achieve our core purpose together. On behalf of the management I would like to thank you all for the support you have rendered to make this institution what it is now. Without your whole hearted backing, we would have no achievements to highlight.

I wish the best of luck to all the senior students who are appearing for the board exam. Once again my heartfelt thanks to one and all.

I hope you all will enjoy today's programme being presented by our students

Wish you all a Happy Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Thank you
